Benton-Franklin Health Board Honors Dr. Amy Person

Board urges support for health district employees

KENNEWICK, Wash. – The Benton-Franklin District Board of Health passed a resolution during their regular meeting today “expressing great appreciation” to Dr. Amy Person, district health officer. The resolution calls Dr. Person “publicly outspoken on community-wide use of safety protocols” to reopen local businesses. “[She] has made the welfare of our community youth a front and center issue, advocating for the value and safety of in-school learning,” according to the resolution.
